Wooden Trays

Many of these trays are shipped directly from Costa Rica, and some sellers offer free shipping depending on the order .

Decorative and Artisan Trays

Platforms like Etsy feature a wide range of Costa Rican trays, including handmade pottery, bamboo, copper, and folk art trays. Prices on Etsy vary widely depending on the seller, material, and craftsmanship. Some listings include shipping in the price, while others may charge separately, so it is recommended to check each product listing for exact pricing and shipping details .

Thermoformed Plastic Trays

For industrial or commercial use, thermoformed trays are available from Costa Rican manufacturers. These are made from plastics such as PET, HIPS, or ABS and are used in food packaging, medical devices, and other applications. Pricing depends on the type of plastic, tray size, and order quantity. For a specific quote, contacting the supplier directly is necessary .
