

Article Overview

Custom-made outdoor distribution boxes in Zimbabwe typically range from USD 150 to USD 600, depending on size, material, and features.

Overview

Custom-made outdoor distribution boxes, also known as DB boxes or power distribution panels, are designed for power control, protection, and distribution in low-voltage systems. They are commonly used in residential, commercial, and industrial applications. These boxes are typically made from sheet steel (1.2-1.5mm) or durable plastic) and finished with powder coating for weather resistance, making them suitable for outdoor installation ( ).

Price Factors

The cost of a custom-made outdoor distribution box in Zimbabwe depends on several factors:

- o Material: Metal boxes (steel or aluminum) are more expensive than plastic variants due to durability and corrosion resistance ( ).
- o Size and Capacity: Boxes range from small 4-way units to large 12-way or more, with larger boxes costing more ( ).
- o Customization: Features such as additional cable entries, RCDs, MCBs, or fiber-optic adapters increase the price ( ).
- o Supplier and Import Costs: Locally manufactured boxes may be cheaper, while imported units from China or other countries may include shipping and customs fees ( ).

Typical Price Range

- o Small outdoor DB boxes (4-6 ways): USD 150-250
- o Medium boxes (8-10 ways): USD 250-400
- o Large or fully customized boxes (12+ ways, with accessories): USD 400-600 or more ( ).

Suppliers in Zimbabwe

Several suppliers and manufacturers provide distribution boxes in Zimbabwe:

- o ZBMS: Offers a range of DB boxes and panelboards with online ordering options ( ).
- o TradeKey Zimbabwe: Supplies metal and plastic distribution boxes with customization options ( ).

o Volza: Provides access to verified local suppliers and shipment-level pricing for bulk orders ( ).

Recommendations

- o Request quotes from multiple suppliers to compare prices and customization options.
- o Specify outdoor use to ensure weatherproofing and corrosion resistance.
- o Consider local suppliers to reduce shipping costs and lead times. By evaluating these factors, buyers in Zimbabwe can select a distribution box that balances cost, durability, and functionality for their specific application.
